

CHAPTER 5
CONSULTATION AND COORDINATION

The Pocatello Draft Resource Management Plan/Environmental Impact Statement was prepared by an interdisciplinary team with expertise in land transactions, minerals and energy, forest management, range management, water quality and riparian, soils, wildlife habitat management, outdoor recreation, cultural resources, fire management, economics, and cartography. All but two team members were from the Idaho Falls District. A list of the preparers is included at the end of this chapter.

Consultation and coordination with agencies, organizations, and individuals occurred throughout the planning process. Numerous opportunities were provided for the public to participate.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

January 17, 1985	Notice of intent to prepare Resource Management Plan published in Federal Register.
March 18, 1985	Sent out 600 newsletters inviting comments on issues to be addressed in the RMP. Twenty-five people addressed issues in the area.
April 2, 1985	Interagency issue identification meeting. Attendees: Idaho Fish and Game, Soil Conservation Service, Idaho Department of Lands, Idaho Department of Water Resources, Land Use Dept. of the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes, Forest Service, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Bureau of Land Management Resource Area and District Office Staff.
April 17, 1985	Issue identification meeting, Pocatello, Idaho. No one attended.
April 24, 1985	Issue identification meeting, Preston, Idaho. Three people attended.
April 25, 1985	Issue identification meeting, Soda Springs, Idaho. Twenty-three people attended.
June 3, 1985	Inventory field day with District Advisory Council.
July 7, 1985	Sent out issues summary and draft planning criteria.
Winter and Spring 1986	Met with individual range users to discuss inventory results, concerns, and needs within the allotments.

June 18, 1986	Presented alternatives and planning update to District Advisory Council.
August 13, 1986	Met with Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes on RMP Alternatives.

The following is a list of agencies, organizations, and individuals to whom the Pocatello Draft RMP/EIS has been sent.
